Cycles of Faith—3rd Sunday of Easter

"Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him." Can you imagine this scene? Jesus comes up next to these two disciples, walks with them, talks with them, even goes so far as to explain the Scriptures about him to them, and they still fail to notice who he is. Understandably, they were sad, "looking downcast" because of Christ's death. Maybe their eyes glumly watched their feet as they trod along instead of taking in the sights around them. But at some point they must have looked at their companion's face. Why didn't they recognize Jesus until "he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them"?

In everything else during their encounter, Jesus had appeared to be just another man. But when he broke the bread, in fact celebrating the Eucharist, they realized who he was. And then, he "vanished from their sight." Could it be that the risen Lord wanted to teach his followers about the new way in which he was present? He may have vanished from sight, but he did not leave them. He was there, as we Catholics profess, through his real presence in the Eucharist.

We are not so different from the disciples on the road to Emmaus. We may at times become downcast, wishing that Jesus was with us in a more obvious, traditional way. But in fact, the risen Lord comes to join us every time we go to Mass, remaining with us through his presence in the Eucharist. We only need the eyes of faith to believe that it's true. This is not the same as physical sight, to be sure. But he is there. As Jesus himself said in last Sunday's Gospel, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29)

Bishop's Fund: Did you know that there is a new Department of Liturgy and Worship, whose Director, Josh Perry, will assist parishes in their Liturgical Celebrations? As we focus on the New Evangelization, and ask those in the community to come back and be a part of our Church Communities, this will help every parish to plan and generate a warm, inviting, and spiritual atmosphere. Please check bishopsappealvt.org to view Josh's plans for the upcoming year, and to make your pledge. Next week's In-Pew Commitment Phase will be an opportunity to pledge early, saving valuable time and resources. We'd love to hear from you, so please open your hearts in prayer. Any gift, no matter the size, truly does count. "Let brotherly love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." The New Evangelization is calling for us to work together to be stewards of time, talent and treasure, and bring so many Catholic back home, to Mass. Our parish goal this year is $22,079.

Birthright: Birthright's Annual Carnation fundraiser will take place Mother's Day weekend, May 13-14 after each Mass. Our parish will give out carnations to all mothers. A donation has been made to Birthright in support of its life-affirming work. We will also have a basket out on Mother's Day weekend for anyone who would like to make a donation to Birthright. Birthright is an emergency pregnancy service for women in crisis pregnancies and provides unconditional support to the woman to help her carry her baby to term. Birthright's guiding principle is: "It is the right of every pregnant woman to give birth, and the right of every child to be born." Birthright of Burlington wishes to give recognition and honor to all mothers, and appreciates your support! For more information on Birthright, or if you are interested in volunteering, please visit www.birthright.org or call them at 865-0056.

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread. — Lk 24:33-35

Young Life Update: Young Life is growing by leaps and bounds! Thanks to your support, Young Life is a vibrant entity at CVU, serving our youth with joyful dedication to ensure each and every high school teen has an opportunity to form a relationship with Jesus. CVU has approved and is supporting a weekly Bible study group on campus. In addition, kids are now enjoying social and wholesome, engaging events like wiffleball golf. Support for this effort is ongoing and once again we will be fundraising to support Young Life at CVU and to help teens earn money for summer camp at Saranac Lake. You can continue to support us by:

~donating your Spring Cleaning items to the tag sale which will happen on May 13th at St. Jude's Church.

~offering kids opportunities to earn camp funds by hiring them to help with needed yard work and/or household chores.

~sponsoring and/or participating in the 2nd Annual Golf Tournament at Cedar Knoll on Saturday, June 24, 2017.

~PRAY: it is free and it is powerful. Please pray for the young leaders who work directly with teens, the committee members who are raising funds to support their efforts, and mostly for our youth to be able to fulfill God's purpose in their lives that can only happen by having a personal relationship with Jesus. To donate items, sign up for the golf tournament and any questions, thoughts or insights, contact Tricia Sulva at majac@gmavt.net

A Prayer For Those Who Serve as the "Face" and "Voice" of the Parish

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the face of the Father's Mercy and Love.
Teach me to bring Your Peace and the Father's Mercy to all whom I encounter today.
Send your Spirit to assist me in my work so that those I serve may encounter your love through me and depart with the Joy of the Gospel in their hearts. Amen
